This listing of claims will replace all prior versions and listings of claims in the application.

Listing of Claims:

1(currently amended). A micro-storage device capable of being conjoined with a personal adornment, comprising:

a substrate comprising a circuit board part and a connecting head extended from the circuit board part, wherein the connecting head is arranged with a plurality of contacts for electrically connecting to an external electronic apparatus, wherein the contacts are directly printed on the substrate;

at least one electronic component mounted on one [[a]] surface of the circuit board part using a Chip On Board (COB) or Surface Mount Technology (SMT); [[and]] additional electronic components mounted in an opposite place than the connecting head and on the other surface of the circuit board part in the substrate using a Chip On Board (COB) or Surface Mount Technology (SMT); and a metal case housing the substrate and the electronic ~~component~~ components and having an opening at the connecting head for coupling to the external electronic apparatus.

2(previously presented). The micro-storage device as claimed in claim 1, further comprising a small hollow object for holding the micro-storage device to thereby conveniently carry the micro-storage device.

3(original). The micro-storage device as claimed in claim 2, wherein the small hollow object is a personal adornment.

4(original). The micro-storage device as claimed in claim 3, wherein the personal adornment is a necklace.
